*For each additional specialization, you can request to follow the requirements for your current calendar year or any subsequent year. Your current calendar year is the academic year of your first admission to the University OR the year for subsequent admission to a new program or readmission to the same program. If you are unsure of your calendar year, go to the "My Progress" page on WebAdvisor and refer to the "Calendar" field in the "At a Glance" section.

Please note that some specialization types are not available for all degree programs. If you have questions about the options for your program, contact your Program Counsellor.
