Learning Outcomes

Course Learning Outcomes

This course is designed to keep the learner at the centre of the learning process, by emphasizing the exploration of meaning and content knowledge through personal and interpersonal discovery. FRHD*1020 was developed with consideration to the University of Guelph Learning Objectives. The general objective is to expand students' knowledge of current conceptual frameworks and research studies in the area of couple and family relationships.

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. Help create a dynamic, exploratory, respectful and inclusive learning environment for both students and instructor in an online learning environment;
2. Demonstrate a global understanding of issues impacting couples and families, comprehending the variety of political, religious, cultural, biological, social, and historical forces that influence family life;
3. Illustrate an appropriate depth and breadth of understanding of couple and family relations and dynamics, recognizing the implications of course content, and putting it into a broader context;
4. Demonstrate an increased understanding of how dominant social values and the unequal structure of opportunities within any particular social context influence individuals' choices about family life;
5. Review historical trends in family structure within the Canadian context;

6. Develop acceptance and understanding related to family issues that are specific to aspects of couple and family dynamics which can be considered and evaluated in many ways. It is hoped that students will become more open, aware, and accepting of the diverse family structures, lifestyles and value systems of others, especially those which are divergent from their own;
 7. Formulate independence of thought and the ability to challenge accepted truths about the family by critically reflecting about the family as it appears in research and the media;
 8. Differentiate and understand the various forms of inquiry used in couple and family research, and be able to assess the strengths and limitations as well as the sociocultural and historical impact of these forms;
 9. Have a love of learning, or intellectual curiosity, regarding couple and family relations and dynamics, by getting personally involved with course content, and reflecting on the personal experiences that have contributed to your family's development and the values you hold related to couple and family relationships;
 10. Examine your own experiences and be self-aware about your values and biases in relation to the various social relationships, and challenge your own beliefs, attitudes, and values regarding these relationships;
 11. Critique the personal and practical implications of course content to be more informed about issues related to family life that will enable you to better understand the dynamics of your own family, and enhance your family life experience; and
 12. Expand your knowledge of individual decision-making regarding couple and family relationships.

Assessment Descriptions

Reflections

The purpose of this assignment is to help you develop critical thinking and reflection skills about the things you experience or hear about from your family/friends with respect to couple and family relationships. You will do this by selecting a theme/topic from the course (see unit themes in this outline) and consider how either an event or situation you have experienced relates to the material in the course.

Online Midterm Test

The midterm test will be delivered online via the Quizzes tool.

This course requires the use of Respondus LockDown Browser to proctor your online midterm test within CourseLink. Use of Lockdown Browser has been implemented to maintain the academic integrity of the midterm test. You must download and install LockDown Browser to complete the practice test and online midterm test.

The online midterm test is based on the information in Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, and 12 of the textbook. It consists of 80 multiple choice questions. You will have 100 minutes to complete the midterm test. There is a practice quiz (ungraded) on CourseLink that will be available to assist students in preparing for the online midterm test.

Please be sure to review the Using Respondus Lockdown Browser instructions by selecting Content on the navbar to locate Assessments in the table of contents panel.

Important Note: There is a mandatory practice test that you are required to take before the midterm test. The purpose of the practice test is to ensure that Respondus LockDown Browser is set up properly and that you are comfortable using the software.

If you have any questions regarding the use of Respondus Lockdown Browser or if you encounter any technical issues during the practice test or midterm test, please contact CourseLink Support at courselink@uoguelph.ca or 519-824-4120 ext. 56939.

Final Exam

This course requires the use of Respondus LockDown Browser to proctor your online final exam within CourseLink. Use of Lockdown Browser has been implemented to maintain the academic integrity of the final exam. You must download and install LockDown Browser to complete the practice test and final exam.

The final examination format is exclusively multiple choice and draws from information in chapters 7, 8, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, and 16 of the textbook. It consists of 100 multiple choice questions.

The final exam will be delivered online via the Quizzes tool. The exam is 2 hours in length and will be held on Thursday, August 19. To accommodate students who may be located in various time zones, the exam will be available beginning at 2:30 pm until 3:30 pm Eastern Time (ET). You can enter the exam at any point during this window of time but will only have 2 hours to complete it from when you start writing. For example, if you start writing the exam by 3:00 pm, you will have until 5:00 pm to complete it. After 3:30 pm ET, you will no longer be able to enter the exam environment.

Similar to a sit-down exam where you must arrive prior to the start of the exam, it is highly recommended that you enter the online exam environment in Respondus at least 20-30 minutes before the end of the available window to allow enough time for you to complete the Respondus Startup Sequence and ensure that you have the full two hours for the exam.

Please be sure to review the Using Respondus Lockdown Browser instructions by selecting Content on the navbar to locate Assessments in the table of contents panel.

Important Note: There is a mandatory practice test that you are required to take before the online exam. The purpose of the practice test is to ensure that Respondus LockDown Browser is set up properly and that you are comfortable using the software.

If you have any questions regarding the use of Respondus Lockdown Browser or if you encounter any technical issues during the practice test or final exam, please contact CourseLink Support at courselink@uoguelph.ca or 519-824-4120 ext. 56939.

University of Guelph degree and associate diploma students must check WebAdvisor for their examination schedule. Open Learning program students must check the Open Learning Program Final Examination Schedule for their examination schedule.

Communicating with Your Instructor

During the course, your instructor will interact with you on various course matters on the course website using the following ways of communication:

- Announcements: The instructor will use Announcements on the Course Home page to provide you with course reminders and updates. Please check this section frequently for course updates from your instructor.
- Direct email to the instructor: If students have a question or an issue that is personal, please directly email the instructor (e.g., accommodations for the quiz).
- Ask Your Instructor Discussion: Use this discussion forum to ask questions of your instructor about content or course-related issues. If you encounter difficulties, the instructor is here to help you. Please post general course-related questions to the Ask Your Instructor discussion forum so that all students have an opportunity to review the response. If you have questions about any of the assessments for this course, you can post your question in the appropriate discussion folder (there will be separate folders for each assessment to streamline the course). To access this discussion forum, select Discussions from the Tools dropdown menu.

Netiquette Expectations

For distance education courses, the course website is considered the classroom and the same protections, expectations, guidelines, and regulations used in face-to-face settings apply, plus other policies and considerations that come into play specifically because these courses are online.

Inappropriate online behaviour will not be tolerated. Examples of inappropriate online behaviour include:

- Posting inflammatory messages about your instructor or fellow students;
- Using obscene or offensive language online;
- Copying or presenting someone else's work as your own;
- Adapting information from the Internet without using proper citations or references;
- Buying or selling term papers or assignments;
- Posting or selling course materials to course notes websites;

- Having someone else complete your quiz or completing a quiz for/with another student;
- Stating false claims about lost quiz answers or other assignment submissions;
- Threatening or harassing a student or instructor online;
- Discriminating against fellow students, instructors, and/or TAs;
- Using the course website to promote profit-driven products or services;
- Attempting to compromise the security or functionality of the learning management system;
- Sharing your username and password; and
- Recording lectures without the permission of the instructor.

Submission of Assignments to Dropbox

Assignments 1 and 3 should be submitted electronically via the online Dropbox tool. When submitting your assignments using the Dropbox tool, do not leave the page until your assignment has successfully uploaded. To verify that your submission was complete, you can view the submission history immediately after the upload to see which files uploaded successfully. The system will also email you a receipt. Save this email receipt as proof of submission.

Be sure to keep a back-up copy of all of your assignments in the event that they are lost in transition. In order to avoid any last minute computer problems, your instructor strongly recommends that you save your assignments to a cloud-based file storage (e.g., Google Docs), or send to your email account, so that should something happen to your computer, the assignment could still be submitted on time or re-submitted.

It is your responsibility to submit your assignments on time as specified on the Schedule. Be sure to check the technical requirements and make sure you have the proper computer, that you have a supported browser, and that you have reliable Internet access. Remember that technical difficulty is not an excuse not to turn in your assignment on time. Do not wait until the last minute as you may get behind in your work.

If, for some reason, you have a technical difficulty when submitting your assignment electronically, please contact your instructor or CourseLink Support.

<https://support.opened.uoguelph.ca/contact>

Late Policy

If you choose to submit your individual assignments to the Dropbox tool late, the full allocated mark will be reduced by 10% per day after the deadline for the submission of the assignment to a limit of five days at which time access to the Dropbox folder will be closed and you will receive a grade of 0%.

Extensions will be considered for medical reasons or other extenuating circumstances. If you require an extension, discuss this with the instructor as soon as possible and well before the due date. Barring exceptional circumstances, extensions will not be granted once the due date has passed. These rules are not designed to be arbitrary, nor are they inflexible. They are designed to keep you organized, to ensure that all students have the same amount of time to work on assignments, and to help to return marked materials to you in the shortest possible time.

Obtaining Grades and Feedback

Unofficial assessment marks will be available in the Grades tool of the course website.

Your instructor will have grades posted online within two (2) weeks of the submission deadline if the assignment was submitted on time. Once your assignments are marked you can view your grades on the course website by selecting Grades from the Tools dropdown menu on the navbar. After you receive a grade on CourseLink, please review your feedback. Any inquiry or dispute over the grade must be made within two weeks from the date they are posted. If you fail to protest any grade during this time limit, changes to the grade will not be considered. Your course will remain open to you for seven days following the last day of the final exam period.

University of Guelph degree students can access their final grade by logging into WebAdvisor (using your U of G central ID). Open Learning program students should log in to the OpenEd Student Portal to view their final grade (using the same username and password you have been using for your courses).

Rights and Responsibilities When Learning Online

For distance education (DE) courses, the course website is considered as the classroom and the same protections, expectations, guidelines, and regulations used in face-to-face settings apply, plus other policies and considerations that come into play specifically because these courses are online.

Turnitin Originality Check

In this course, your instructor will be using Turnitin, integrated with the CourseLink Dropbox tool, to detect possible plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration or copying as part of the ongoing efforts to maintain academic integrity at the University of Guelph.

All individual assignments submitted to the Dropbox tool will be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of such papers. Use of the Turnitin.com service is subject to the Usage Policy posted on the Turnitin.com site.

A major benefit of using Turnitin is that you will be able to educate and empower yourself in preventing academic misconduct. In this course, you may screen your own assignments through Turnitin as many times as you wish before the due date. You will be able to see and print reports that show you exactly where you have properly and improperly referenced the outside sources and materials in your assignment.

Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

Plagiarism Detection Software

Students should be aware that faculty have the right to use software to aid in the detection of plagiarism or copying and to examine students orally on submitted work. For students found guilty of academic misconduct, serious penalties, up to and including suspension or expulsion from the University can be imposed.

Recording of Materials

Presentations which are made in relation to course work—including lectures—cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a classmate or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website and circulated by email.
